Caroline Sheriff announces Citizen's Police Academy

Sheriff A. A. "Tony" Lippa, Jr., announces that the Caroline County Sheriff's Office will hold its 2nd Annual Citizen's Police Academy beginning September 21, 2010. The goal of the Caroline County Sheriff's Office Citizen's Police Academy is to provide a better understanding between you, the citizen and your Sheriff's Office, through education and exposure to the functions of the agency. Students are not trained to be police officers. Rather, they are informed and trained about each aspect of law enforcement. Students will learn the inner workings of law enforcement. Topics covered will include patrol, criminal investigations, court services, communications and special teams.

"I am excited that we are able to offer another opportunity to allow citizens to see the true inter-workings of their local Sheriff's Office. I am also grateful to the Caroline Board of Supervisor's for their support of this worth while program," stated Sheriff Lippa.

The Caroline County Citizen's Police Academy will be a thirteen week course that will be held on Tuesday nights from 6:30pm to 9:00pm and an occasional Saturday at the Community Services Center just south of Bowling Green. The academy is open to Caroline County residents and business owners, 21 years of age and older. Graduation is scheduled for December 16, 2010 at 6:30pm in the auditorium at the Community Services Center.

Applications to attend the Citizen's Police Academy can be found on our website or picked up from the office. The deadline to submit an application for this course will be September 10, 2010. For more information, contact Lt. J. H. Crowder at 804-633-8045 or visit www.carolinsheriff.org
