Press Release

Life Saving Award
December 16, 2010

On December 15, 2010, Anytime Towing held their annual Christmas dinner at the Timbers Restaurant in Ladysmith. There was a little more to celebrate this year as Caroline County Sheriff A. A. "Tony" Lippa Jr. awarded T.K. Loving with the Life Saver Award for heroic actions taken on the morning of October 31st, 2010. His actions are credited with saving the life of Robyn Silcox, 20, of Stafford.

Silcox's car was broken down on the side of Interstate 95 between Ladysmith and Thornburg when T.K. Loving, a tow truck driver for Anytime Towing, responded with assistance. Shortly thereafter Loving and Silcox found themselves in the path of an oncoming vehicle that had drifted off the roadway and onto the shoulder of the road. Both Loving and Silcox sustained serious and long term injuries as Loving bravely rushed to push Silcox away from the oncoming vehicle, undoubtedly saving her life.

The driver fled the scene of the accident and has yet to be identified. The vehicle involved is believed to be a dark blue 2008 Chevrolet Cobalt or Pontiac G5. Anyone with information about the crash or the vehicle is asked to call the Virginia State Police at 804/633-6799 or call the Caroline County Sheriff's Office anonymous tip line at 804/633-1133.

Over the years Sheriff Lippa has presented the Life Saver Award to individuals like T.K. Loving who demonstrate heroic and lifesaving actions in the face of danger

"I am proud to present this award to T.K. Loving for his heroic actions. Incidents such as these serve as a constant reminder of this County's greatest resource - OUR PEOPLE!"
