Summary: Attached is a proposed resolution celebrating April 3-9, 2022 as National Library Week in Caroline County.

Action Requested of Board of Supervisors: Adopt resolution as presented

A RESOLUTION CELEBRATING NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK
APRIL 3-9, 2022 IN CAROLINE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

WHEREAS, libraries are accessible and inclusive places that foster a sense of connection and build community; and

WHEREAS, libraries connect people to technology, providing access to broadband internet, computers and training that are critical for accessing education and employment opportunities; and

WHEREAS, libraries offer opportunities for everyone to connect with new ideas and become their best selves through access to multimedia content, programs and classes – in addition to books; and

WHEREAS, today’s libraries and their services extend far beyond the four walls of a building and everyone is welcome to use their resources; and

WHEREAS, in times of crisis, libraries and library professionals play an invaluable role in supporting their communities both in person and virtually; and

WHEREAS, libraries strive to develop and maintain programs and collections that are as diverse as the populations they serve and ensure equity of access for all; and

WHEREAS, to adapt to our changing world, libraries are expanding their resources and continuing to meet the needs of their patrons; and

WHEREAS, libraries have long served as trusted and treasured institutions for all members of the community regardless of race, ethnicity, creed, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity or socio-economic status; and

WHEREAS, libraries are cornerstones for democracy, promoting the free exchange of information and ideas for all; and

WHEREAS, libraries, librarians and library workers are joining library supporters and advocates across the nation to celebrate National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Caroline County Board of Supervisors hereby joins in the celebration of National Library Week, April 3-9, 2022 and encourages all residents to connect with their library by visiting in person or on line to access resources and services.

Adopted this 22nd day of March 2022.
