

C) Adoption of Rules of Order

Supervisor Thomas suggested that the Rules of Order be modified to allow Board Members to read letters from constituents during citizen comments if that was the desire of the Board. He explained that this was previously done because of citizens wishing to avoid large gatherings due to the pandemic.

Supervisor Long moved and Vice-Chair Black seconded to adopt the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure for calendar year 2022 with the amendment of Section 5-4D to read as follows:

“Members of the Board of Supervisors shall not read letters from the public as part of the public hearing process unless determined by the Board.”

Roll Call Vote:

Black	Yea
Forehand	Yea
Long	Yea
Sili	Yea
Thomas	Yea
Underwood	Yea

D) Schedule of Regular Board Meetings for 2022

Vice-Chair Black moved and Supervisor Sili seconded to approve the regular meeting schedule for calendar year 2022 with the removal of the July 12th meeting.

Roll Call Vote:

Black	Yea
Forehand	Yea
Long	Yea
Sili	Yea
Thomas	Yea
Underwood	Yea

E) Board of Supervisors Appointments

Supervisor Long moved and Vice-Chair Black seconded to appoint the following individuals to the respective boards and commissions for calendar year 2022:

- Rappahannock Area Agency on Aging (now doing business as Healthy Generations) – Supervisor Underwood
- Social Services Board – Supervisor Long
- George Washington Regional Commission – Supervisor Black and Supervisor Sili
- Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce Government & Military Affairs Council – Supervisor Sili